"Das kleine Wir" PRE-SCHOOL Project/

Currently we are discussing a special book with our preschool children:

"Das kleine US"

("The little US") by Daniela Kunkel.

What does "das kleine WIR" convey?

The book conveys the importance of "US" in life. This starts with very young children and continues throughout our entire lives.

This story encourages children to think about the following questions:

How do I become part of a community?

What is special about my Preschool group?

And what helps when I feel lonely?

We don't teach classes at Foxhill,
we teach children.

AFTER school

In the afternoon care, great March projects were done with the children as you can see here.
(Gardening, salt dough project, etc...)

We don't teach classes at Foxhill,
we teach children.

We learned about the animals and their habitat.
This topic was very well received.

Learning
outside is fun

We don't teach classes at Foxhill,
we teach children.
